Notice to Mail Subscribers.

Subscribers are supplied with a notice of the date their subscription will expire ten days in advance of the time; and again with a second notice on the day the last copy paid for is sent. This will enable all persons to keep the run of their accounts, and to renew in time not to miss an issue of the paper.

In 1861, the secession said that Abraham

Lincoln and his party intended to destroy the institution of slavery in the States. Lincoln and his party denied it and gave the most emphatic assurance that the charge was false. Instead, it was evidence of disloyalty in Kentucky to make such a charge.

The friends of the Union, in the press and on the stump, discredited the charge and showed that the President and his party denied it.

In this way the contest went on in all parts of Kentucky—the friends of the Union defending the President and his party from the charge. It was clear proof that a man was a rebel if he proclaimed and undertook to show that the war would be one on slavery.

Now how is it? Honest old Abraham has proved that what the rebels said was true, and what the friends of the Union said was false.

He has given the lie to what the friends of the Government said and confirmed what his enemies said. He cannot escape the charge of apostasy from the faith upon which he was supported in Kentucky and by the Union men in the South generally. That he has changed his doctrine and his practice radically, nobody denies, regardless of how it might affect the cause of the Government.

The partisans of the Administration who now condemn all as disloyal who do not support the present doctrine and measures of the Administration. Two short years ago the Administration opposed these same measures, and their partisans did so in like manner.

At that time they were all disloyal practices. It was one proof of loyalty to defend the Administration against the intention of doing what it has since done. It was proof of disloyalty to charge such an intention. The standard of loyalty is changed without notice, and all men are expected to change in conformity with the vacillating standard at Washington.

Lincoln asks men now to swear to support

what he has condemned and repudiated two years ago.

What will be the next standard of loyalty?

Must all advocate peace and the acknowledgment of the Southern Confederacy?

We protest against all these shifts and tur-nisms. The Constitution, with its historical and political interpretations, is the true standard.

He who supports it is loyal; none other are.

Lincoln & Co. may apostatize from their faith, once zealously professed, and may shift standards of loyalty at their discretion. We prefer the old standard, that we hope will survive the storms of revolution.

If our people had the means and the time to spare, it would learn wisdom by abolition experiments with the negro. These Abolitionists can learn anything. We don't know that experience will make them any wiser. Their mental organization is a mix-

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Small Cylinder Hoe Printing Press for Sale.

COUNTERFEIT $100 GREENBACKS.—ATTEMPT TO CIRCULATE THEM HERE.—In our telegraph columns a few days since we published the fact that counterfeit treasury notes of the denomination of one hundred had made their appearance. On Saturday an attempt was made to circulate these notes in this city, and the villains succeeded in passing a number of them. If we are correctly informed, at an early hour Saturday night a party entered the hat store of Mr. Osburn, on Main street, and purchased a hat valued at $5, and tendered in payment for the same a $100 note, which was taken by the store-keeper, who returned $95 in change. The parties who passed the note immediately left and no clue has yet been obtained as to who they were. But little doubt exists that it was the intention of the parties to "above" these notes upon our citizens. In connection with this we might mention that counterfeit notes of the value of ten, twenty, fifty and one hundred are now in circulation, and they should be on the lookout for the same. The one hundred counterfeit notes are well executed and likely to deceive.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Monday, March 28.
PAL. COLLAR, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, fined $5.
Joseph Elwell, drunkenness, &c.; sent to the military.
Geo. H. Pettit, drunkenness, &c.; fined $5.

John Webb, charged with the murder of Ellen Gavin; testimony heard and accused committed to answer the charge of murder.
Wm. Johnson, James Livermore and Andrew Sinsley, were charged with stealing three watches from Mr. Silverberg; Livermore and Sinsley were held in $400 to answer, and Johnson was discharged.

STREET RAILROADS.—We are glad to learn that the "Louisville City Railroad Company" are pushing things forward vigorously. Gen. Boyle, the president of the company, who has been East for a short time, returned yesterday. From him we learn that the company have contracted for the rails and ties for the road, and that a portion of the rails will be received during the present week. The company have also contracted for twelve fine cars of the latest pattern, which will be received in due time. At the meeting of the Council to-night the bond between the city and the railroad company will be approved, and the work will be commenced at once.

OUTRAGE BY SOLDIERS.—On Saturday evening a party of soldiers entered the store of Mr. Silverberg, at the corner of Seventh and Main streets, and while one of the party seized the clerk in the store by the throat and held him, the others robbed the show case of three fine silver watches. Three parties, Wm. Johnson, James Livermore and Andrew Sinsley were arrested on the charge. They had a preliminary examination before Judge Johnston yesterday. Johnson was discharged and the others were required to give bail in $400 to answer the charge of robbery.

ARREST OF A FEMALE SOLDIER.—On Sunday evening a female soldier, attired in full uniform, was arrested on the levee. She is about twenty years of age, and gave her name as Elizabeth Price. She stated that Cincinnati was her home, and that she had served in the army for over two years. Her lover enlisted in the army and she desired to follow and share his fortune. She was taken to the office of a soldier and leave the comforts of home. She thinks that she has seen enough of the service, and desires to return to her home in Cincinnati.

"In the Democrat of Sunday we made mention of an assault upon W. C. Hite, President of the Merchants' Bank, by E. T. Bainbridge, an old citizen of this place. Yesterday Mr. Bainbridge was arrested on a felony warrant issued out by W. C. D. Whipple, charging him with assaulting Mr. Hite with intent to kill. Mr. Bainbridge was brought before the Police Court, and waiving an examination, gave bail in $800 to answer at the Criminal Court. Mr. Hite, we learn, is confined to his bed from the effects of the wounds he received.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire about 7 o'clock yesterday morning was occasioned by the burning of the roof of a house on Market street, between Third and Fourth, occupied by Mr. Porter as a livery stable. The alarm at 11 o'clock proceeded from a house on Preston street, between Green and Walnut. Both fires were extinguished without the assistance of the engines.

Col. Vaughan, the new Provost Marshal, has appointed the following hours for doing business: From 9 o'clock A. M. to 12 o'clock P. M., and from 1 o'clock P. M. to 6 o'clock P. M. No business with citizens will be transacted outside of the above named hours.

A woman by the name of Mary Donally was arrested yesterday upon the charge of selling liquor to soldiers. She was released upon giving bonds to behave better in the future.

COLONEL WOLFORD RESTORED.—Dispatches to the Cincinnati papers state that Colonel Wolford has been restored to the service by the President at the request of General Grant.

W. H. Ehrlich, the popular newsdealer at the corner of Third and Main streets, has our thanks for repeated favors to this office.

Mr. Julius Wellman has our thanks for files of late Eastern papers.

DR. URBAN'S INFEBRITY'S HOPE.—A most successful and long-tried remedy for the cure of drunkenness, delirium tremens and St. Vitus' dance, is carefully prepared, and full directions sent by mail, post paid, to any part of the Union, for $1.50 per package, or four packages for $5. Address HARNEY & CO., 74 Fourth street, Louisville, Ky.

An order was received relieving Lieutenant Colonel Vaughan as president of the court-martial, and Lieutenant Colonel Bullitt, of the Third Kentucky Infantry, will take his place as president of the court.

In Lieutenant Colonel Johnson's court the case of Lieutenant C. A. McCue was finished. The case of W. H. Herbert, of company I, Second Ohio heavy artillery, was called, when the prisoner objected to a member of the court, Lieutenant Colonel Ewing, upon the ground that he was second in command of the regiment of which he was a member. The objection of the prisoner was sustained, and as this left no quorum the court adjourned. If Lieutenant Colonel Johnson returns this case will be taken up to-day.

Amusements.
Woods' Theatre.—The elements conspired last night, and succeeded in producing one of the most disagreeable and stormy nights yet experienced. Despite this Miss Weston drew a fine audience to witness the superb rendition of the "French Spy." This place has been played to its utmost limits in this city, and by all classes and grades of artists, but Miss Weston's grand emphasis in the part, and the perfect rendition of the scenes bestowed on her by the press in the various cities of the Union. To-night Miss W. appears in "Don Cesar De Bazan" and the farce of "A Devilish Good Luck."

The Opera.—The event of the season was consummated last night. The Italian opera is with us in the "buddy presence." The old palmy days of the theatre, when the great night of the season was known and prized in days ago filled the boxes, parquette and balcony. The beauty and fashion which we loved to see of yore again beamed and sparkled on our delighted vision. It is but a faint and faded expression of praise to say that the opera was a success. It was more it was a failure.

For the opera itself, Traversa is so well known that a better selection could not have been made for an opening night. The aria in the first act, as given by M. Loris, the trio in the finale, and the almost marvellous excellence of M. Meretoni and S. Stéfani and Morelli, in their respective roles, at once made patent to the audience that the artists offered for their criticism were in every way worthy of the reputation they enjoy. Not the least of the attractions was the exquisite orchestra.

To-night Plow's splendid opera of "Martha" will be performed. This work was written expressly for Carl Forster, who has well known and so much admired in this city. M. Le Castri, the young and beautiful prima donna, also makes her debut this evening. It needs no praise from us to insure a full house, for that is already a "fait accompli."

THE GREAT MILITARY TABLEAU OF PARADISE is drawing immense crowds. Masonic Temple filled nightly to its utmost capacity by our citizens to witness this great work of art, illustrating as it does the grand subject in the world, Milton's great poem, "Paradise Lost." To all of our citizens who have not seen this exhibition, we would say, visit it this evening. It is well worth a visit, or you will lose the rarest treat of a lifetime.

The beautiful landscape scenery of the Garden of Eden is especially attractive as shown in this exhibition, while the scenes representing Heaven are delicate and beautiful in the highest degree. There is nothing of the horrible in this exhibition, nothing to frighten the nerves of the most delicate child, as some might be led to expect. We would call the attention of those who visit the exhibition to-night to the splendid landscape in the Garden of Eden, where Eve sees her reflection in the water; it is a masterpiece of art.

A REMEDY FOR PILES.—It is a blessing to the suffering to know that we have an effective remedy for this truly troublesome disease. Mr. J. P. Yeager's Pile Remedy, and it effected a permanent cure. This seems to be the case with all who make use of this splendid preparation. The medicine is sold at No. 6 E. HAINES BROS.' PIANOS.
WE ARE NOW RECEIVING A GOOD ASSORTMENT of these celebrated Pianos, every one will know that a better selection could not have been made for an opening night. The aria in the first act, as given by M. Loris, the trio in the finale, and the almost marvellous excellence of M. Meretoni and S. Stéfani and Morelli, in their respective roles, at once made patent to the audience that the artists offered for their criticism were in every way worthy of the reputation they enjoy. Not the least of the attractions was the exquisite orchestra.
